Article 1

Purpose-Scope

The provisions of this decision are applied by the providers of terrestrial networks and/or electronic communications services regarding the information provided to the emergency call center to locate the caller of the emergency number 112.

Article 2

Definitions

"AML Service": Advanced mobile location service as described in the ETSI TS 103 625 standard.

The definitions contained in Law 4727/2020 (A' 184) and in the following elements of the AP apply to this EETT 938/2/25-5-2020 (B' 2699). Terms and phrases not mentioned herein are interpreted in accordance with national legislation and the secondary law of the European Union.

Article 3

Determination of accuracy and reliability criteria for terrestrial fixed telephony networks

1. Fixed telephone network/service providers provide caller location information (physical address of network termination point) to emergency call centers

(Public Safety Answering Points-PSAP) of 112. In case the exact address of the physical termination point is not available , the coordinates of its location are sent, if they exist.

2. Providers of fixed telephone networks/services provide the caller ID number to the emergency call center in any case, even if the user has requested to restrict the display of his number.

3. The reliability of the information is ensured by the operators for 90% of the calls.

Article 4

Defining accuracy and reliability criteria for terrestrial mobile networks

1. Mobile phone network/service providers ensure, in the event of a call to the 112 emergency service, the provision of the caller's location information to the 112 PSAPs immediately and with the maximum technically possible accuracy.

2. The accuracy criterion is set at 50m and the judge-confidence level at 80%.

3. Mobile network/service providers provide the caller ID number to the emergency call center in any case, even if the user has requested to limit the display of their number.

4. Providers comply with the above criteria when sending the caller's location to the 112 PSAPs, to the extent technically possible and to the extent that it concerns a) the transmission by the network, of the location message generated by the user's physical device (AML system) and its delivery to the PSAP and b) in the provision of location information provided by the provider's network, in accordance with the act of the A.D.A.E. 2002/3-9-2008 "Act of the Authority for Ensuring the Privacy of Communications (A.D.A.E.) on the processing of emergency calls for the provision of information to the authorities for dealing with emergency situations agencies" (B' 1898), as applicable.

5. When making calls where there is no SIM or there is limited access to the network (Limited Service State - LSS) and consequently it is not possible to send SMS, the geolocation accuracy does not exceed 3 km within urban areas and outside urban areas of the 10km network for 80% of the calls.

Article 5

Submission of statistics to E.ETT. and in G.G.P.P.

1. The providers submit to E.E.T.T. and to the General Secretariat of Civil Protection on an annual basis, within the deadline of par. 2, statistics on the number of calls made from their network to 112, by type of network (fixed, mobile) and by type of location information (caller address details, AML-DataSMS, network information, etc.). The total number of SMS and DataSMS messages sent to the 112 center is also submitted. Very short calls (less than 5 seconds) are submitted as a special category.

2. These data are submitted by May 31 of each year and refer to the calls made to 112 in the previous year.

Article 6

Transitional provisions

1. Until the entry into force of the provisions of paragraph 2 of article 4, i.e. until 1/6/2025, the accuracy and reliability criteria of paragraph 2 of article 4 are set at 50 m and 70% respectively.

2. The first submission of data in accordance with article 5 will be made by 31/5/2025 and will concern calls to 112 that will have been made in the year 2024 after the publication of this decision.

Article 7

Start of force

This decision comes into force from the date of its publication in the Government Gazette , except for the provisions of par. 2 of article 4 which come into force from 1/6/2025.

This decision to be published in the Government Gazette.
